

Development Worker

An exciting opportunity has arisen for the post of Development Worker for MET, to advocate and promote the work of MET nationally within the Methodist church and beyond.

We are looking for someone who is gifted in preaching/teaching and able to encourage, equip and support evangelicals in their ministry.

This is a full time post, but could be a job share for two part-time roles.

Salary range: £25,000 - £28,000.

(For presbyters and deacons of the Methodist Church normal terms and conditions apply).

An enhanced DBS disclosure will be required for this post.

It is an occupational requirement that the post holder is an evangelical Christian.
